

The Fourth Estate

The official IIT Madras campus-zine since 2000

Mark your actions; we are watching, whatever you do.

Mark your words; we are listening, whatever you say.

TFE is back, with a new set of eyes and ears. After a hitchhike across the galaxy, we went on a trip with Vitalstatistix tomorrow. Join us for the next odyssey.

We believe in the pen and the print. Make sure you believe us, for we spy and we don't lie.

We are not early and we won't be late, for we worship deadlines (when they go to heaven).

Send in your words; if they don't make much of a sense, we might still consider them to award you a sentence.

We love competition, especially when they filter, copy and reflect.

For the newsletters, we're sorry but you ain't got nothing new. The PAAPrikas failed to count their sins and the reservoir dogs are not allowed.

We urge you to write as a rite; claim your right, no matter if it's right or wrong.

To read is human, to write divine.

TFE, the official 'free' press invites articles, cartoons, photographs, artwork, circuit-diagrams, anecdotes, quotes, poems, puzzles, word-games, money, and all that. For the wordsworthy, we have already booked the Booker.
